Linux Session

What is Linux Session?

The Linux Session is an Open Source conference where technology meets community.

Each year, we bring together the brightest minds to share insights and forge the future of software freedom.

Our community

Engage with over 300 tech enthusiasts in an event filled with tech talks, hands-on workshops, and vibrant discussions.

Join us there

Be a part of an inspiring journey that drives the Open Source movement forward.

Organizers

Who we are

ASI promotes Open Source at Wroclaw University of Technology, maintaining a rich tradition of technological exploration for over two decades.

Our activities

At ASI, we ignite innovation through weekly meetings and workshops, honing practical skills and linking academic studies with industry trends.
